FATHER'S DAY

MUSIC & WORSHIP RESOURCES

Sunday, June 16, 2013

Michelle Riley Jones, Lectionary Team Liturgist

“Of all the rocks upon which we build our lives, we are reminded today that family is the most important. And we are called to recognize and honor how critical every father is to that foundation.”

—Barack Obama, Father's Day 2008, Apostolic Church of God, Chicago, IL

Worship Planning Notes

Father's Day evokes many different emotions—some good, some negative. This special day is a time to acknowledge and celebrate the gift of our earthly fathers, grandfathers, and father-figures. Consider these ideas as you plan your Father's Day Service:

- Involve as many fathers as possible in the service—doing readings, leading in prayer, etc.
- Share experiences. Let members of the congregation speak of their experiences of being a father or of being fathered. Before the sermon (or as part of it) it might be possible and appropriate to include such an element of 'testimony.' This might include, for instance:
 - A panel of three fathers at three different stages on the joyful and challenging journey of fatherhood;
 - Having a new dad describe the difference being a father has made to his life and his faith;
 - Inviting someone to share their experience of having a father who let them down badly, and the difference that knowing God's love has made to them;
 - Inviting a grandfather to speak about what it is like to be a grandparent, including any advice he has for new parents, or any things he wishes he had done differently when his children were young;

- Inviting a single dad to talk about what support he has received (i.e., men’s ministry retreats, seminars, etc.) from the church to help him rear his child/ren.
- Do a spotlight on a specific group of fathers in the service (i.e. newly baptized/new members who are fathers, oldest father, youngest father, father with the most children, father with adopted/foster children, father who is the longest married, newly married father, men who have played the role of a father in someone’s life, etc.).
- Include a special dedication or consecration of fathers during the service and present each father with a copy of the book God’s Man: A Daily Devotional Guide to Christlike Character by Don M. Aycock
- Combine traditional hymn tunes with newer praise choruses to demonstrate the value of the past and its influence on contemporary music:
 - “All Hail the Power of Jesus’ Name” (2c) with “I Sing Praises to Your Name” (4c)
 - “How Firm a Foundation” (2b) with “Firm Foundation” (4d)
 - “I Sing the Mighty Power of God” (2d) with “Mighty You Are” (4a)
 - “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty” (2e) with “Praise the Father, Praise the Son” (4g)
- Design your bulletin to include quotes from kids saying why their dad is the best or why they want to be like their dad.
- Incorporate multicultural elements in the service if other cultures are represented in your congregation.
- Don’t forget to remember dads in the military who may currently be deployed.
- Highlight specific programs, activities, resources, etc. for fathers that are facilitated by your church ministries. Put these in the bulletin and on screens, along with contact information for the ministry leaders.

Call to Worship

(a) Scriptural Call to Worship for Fathers’ Day. By Christine Longhurst*

Scriptural Call to Worship for Fathers' Day

Come, let us worship God our Father, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing that comes from heaven: (Eph. 1) who knew us and chose us before the world began; (1 Pet. 1, Eph. 1)

who loves us so much that he calls us his own children; (1 Jn. 3)

who has brought us from darkness into light and filled us with his glorious power; (Col. 1)

who has prepared an inheritance for us that will never spoil or fade; (1 Pet. 1)

who encourages and strengthens us in every good deed and word; (2 Thes. 2)

who comforts us in our troubles
so that we can comfort others. (2 Cor. 1)

This is our God,
the ultimate source of all good things,
and the One for whom we live. (1 Cor. 8)

Come, let us worship God, our Father, together!

Benediction Prayer

(a) Benediction for Father's Day. Based on Psalm 103 and Romans 8. By Michelle Riley Jones

As you go from here, remember this:
God's love is from everlasting to everlasting,
as far as the East is from the West,
and from generation to generation.
Our Father has compassion on his children.
We are His sons and daughters;
Made from the dust of the earth,
and adopted into His family.
He has compassion on those who fear Him,
who listen to his voice, and who do His will.
We are His heirs, and fellow heirs with Christ.
Go out in the knowledge that the everlasting love of God,
our Father, goes with you wherever you go.
Amen.

(c) Color Him Father. By Richard Spencer Lewis

YouTube: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9R37yxP4ZUA>

Here's a wonderful music/video resource to honor stepfathers, father-figures, etc., as sung by The WinStons. The D.C.-based group sold over a million copies of this song, which was certified gold, and won a Grammy for Best R&B Song in 1970. The son recounts the consistent way the father provides for the family and shows love and respect to his mother. As the song continues, it's revealed that the man is actually his stepfather who selflessly married a widow with seven children. As a result, the stepson colors him "love."

(d) A Father's Day Welcome. By Floodgate Productions

This video is designed to be displayed before a worship service, during the offering, or as the invocation.
